FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“Dodge City” is 3rd in Free Outdoor Movie Series at Old Cowtown Museum

(Sedgwick County, Kansas) – Western classic “Dodge City” will be shown Thursday, July 12, as the third in the four-part “Movies Under a Western Sky” series at Old Cowtown Museum. Sponsored by KSN-TV, the movie begins at dusk and is free to everyone. Movie fans are invited to take blankets or lawn chairs to enjoy the outdoor showing on the billboard-sized screen.

The 1939 production tells a fictionalized story of how Dodge City was tamed, but it is still considered one of the best “super” westerns ever. The movie stars Errol Flynn and Olivia deHavilland, and also includes Alan Hale, Guinn “Big Boy” Williams, and Ann Sheridan. The film’s excellent outdoor color photography and a classic saloon brawl make the movie a winner, according to critics.

Snacks and beverages will be available for sale. Visitors can take advantage of the late Thursday hours, 10 am – 8 pm (Memorial Day through Labor Day), with admission only $2 per person from 5 – 8 pm. Hours during the rest of the week are 10 am - 5 pm, Monday through Saturday, and Sunday, noon – 5 pm. For more information on the Museum, please call the information line at 264-6398.
